January Highlights

FWIB has started off the Spring 2022 semester with a bang! We have welcomed many new members and continue to meet more students interested in FWIB. We began our semester with Business Bash hosted by the Business College Council at the Reitz Union Grand Ballroom, followed that with a virtual option, and also tabled outside of the Heavener School of Business during Warrington Wednesday. We opened up our Headshot/Name tag Fundraiser to get our members looking professional and even had our seventh General Body Meeting. Honeywell was able to speak to us in person and it was a fantastic experience. We can't wait to make the most out of Spring semester!

Leadership

FWIB has focused on many recruiting efforts early this semester. Here are some business gators checking out our table at Business Bash. We have some cool swag, cute t-shirts, and even a brand new poster board! It's safe to say FWIB is killing the game!

Pillar: Community

FWIB aims to create a safe space for all women inside the business school. We can trust on our members and our E-board to be there for each other and that is quite a special thing.

Professional Development

This month, we had our first in-person speaker. Thank you Honeywell for making your way all the way to the beautiful city of Gainesville and taking time to teach us about your Future Finance Leaders program and how to stand out as a future applicant!
