HIGHLIGHTS

The month of October was another hit for Florida Women in Business! We kicked off the month with a LinkedIn Workshop, where our VP of Professional Development taught us everything we needed to know to construct the perfect LinkedIn profile. The following Thursday, it was time for GBM #3, where we got to hear from Alpha Sights and soon after, we had our first Mentor-Mentee meeting of the year. Mentor-Mentee Meeting #1 was an absolute success and we loved getting to meet all of our amazing mentors and mentees. In the spirit of Halloween, we participated in UF BCC's Halloween Business Bash and that evening, held GBM #4, featuring IBM. To wrap up it all up, we had our first community service event of the year and collected recyclables to make Halloween gift bags. We are exceptionally grateful for another fantastic month and we can not wait for what next month holds!

Community

In Florida Women in Business, our community is one thing which we are constantly working to grow. We had our first Mentor-Mentee meeting this month, and that was an excellent chance for FWIB members to feel closer to the community.

This meeting allowed members to form strong connections with their mentor/mentee while also being able to acquaint themselves with others. Aside from our Mentor-Mentee program, Florida Women in Business offers numerous socials and other events set up with the intent to encourage members to get to know each other. In FWIB, our goal is to not only educate and present opportunities, but to promote the value of connections and forming friendships.

“There is no limit to what we, as women, can accomplish.”

Michelle Obama

Sustainability

This month, FWIB aimed to emphasize the importance of sustainability at our first community service event of the year. At our Sustainable Halloween Gift Bag Making event, we asked members to save and bring decorative recyclable items to craft their bags with. Using old jars, egg cartons, buttons, empty paper towel rolls, other random items, and a bit of paint, we create several unique and adorable Halloween gift bags.
